

Sending a Message Using the Participants List

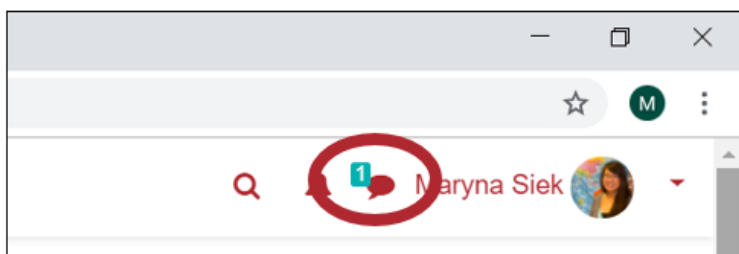

Moodle's messaging combines features of both email and instant messaging in one tool. You can send and receive messages from other Moodle users, add users to your contact list, block users from sending you messages, and view a history of your messages.

Sending a Message Using the Participants List

When you log in to Moodle and someone has sent you a message, a notification will pop up on the top right hand side of your screen.

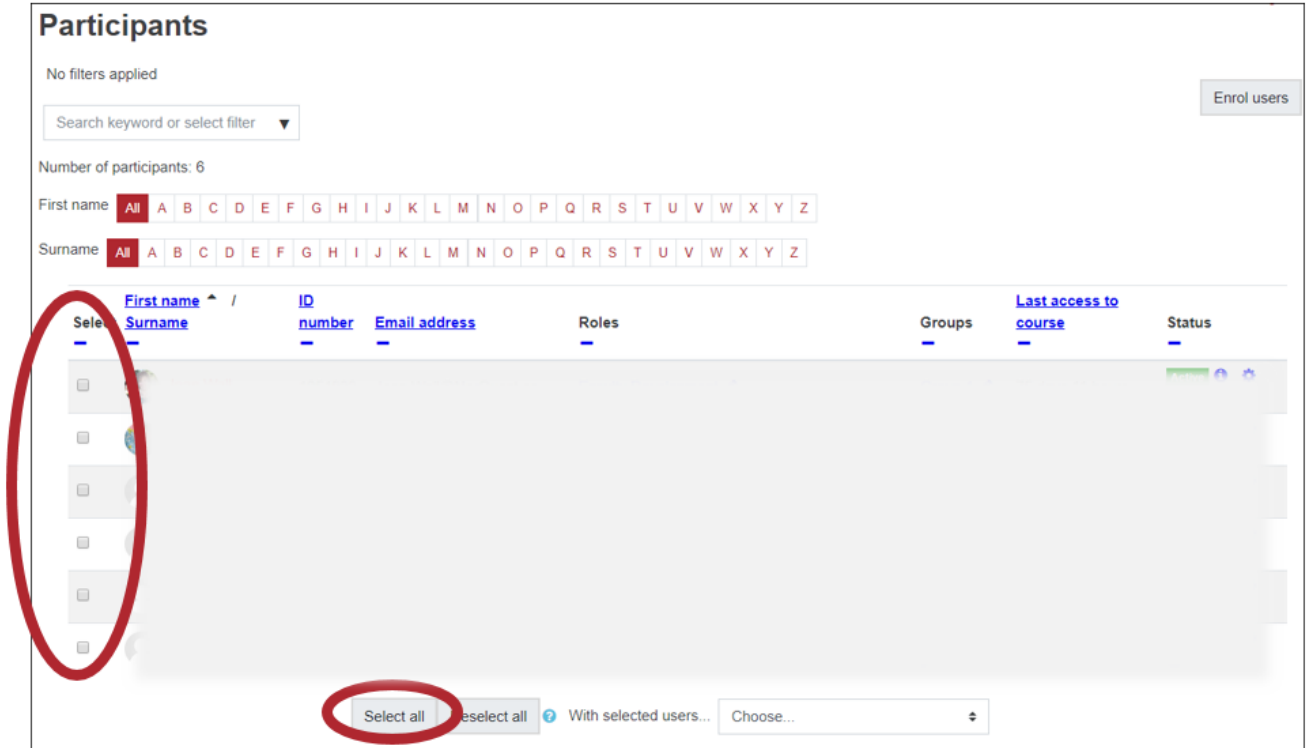

1. To send a message, locate and click on 'Participants' on the left hand side of your screen. You may need to click the hamburger button on the top left to open up the 'Navigation pane' to see it.

2. Either click on the checkboxes next to the people you would like to message or click on

'Select all' at the bottom of the list.

Sending a Message Using the Messages Feature

1. Locate your profile on the top right hand side of your Moodle page. Click on 'Messages' in the drop down menu that appears.

2. If you have messages, the sender will show in the left pane, and the message itself will show on the right. You can click on a name to reply to that message. Type your reply in the bar labeled 'Write a message', and click 'Send'.

3. If you would like to message a contact or search for a user or course, click on the 'Contacts' button on the bottom of the left pane. Use the search function at the top of the left pane, and click on the name of the person you wish to contact.

4. If you would like to add a person to your contacts, click on their name above the message history in the right pane, and then click 'Add contact'.
