

Wikis

Contents

1. Add a Wiki
2. The Wiki mode and the group mode: Create a wiki home page
4. Edit a Wiki home page
5. Create a sub wiki page
6. Edit a sub wiki page
7. Navigate the wiki
8. To Leave your Comment
9. History and Compare the wiki pages

1. Add a Wiki

1. Go to the course front page.
2. Click on the Settings button, and then select Turn editing on from the dropdown menu.

3. Click Add an activity or resource.
4. Click on the radio button next to Wiki and click on the Add button.

5. The "Adding a new Wiki page" will appear.

9. In the Format section, you can choose the default format of the Wiki:

HTML- gives the editor a text editor identical to text editors in other parts of Moodle (recommended)

Creole- common markup editor for wikis

Nwiki- another common markup editor for wikis

please note that individuals can set their preferred editing format afterwards. You are only setting the default editor.

10. Click on the Save and return to course or Save and display button.

1. Click on the Wiki activity on the course front page.
*If the Format setting page appears, choose the HTML format (recommended) or your preferred editing format. You cannot change the "New page title".

This is where you would put the Value, Background and Instructions for your course.
Also there should be links to other pages like this - [[other page]]

This is also where you can begin a wiki for others to collaborate with you.

- Click on the Save button. It is recommended to click the Preview button before you click Save, so you can see if your formatting works properly (especially links to other pages).

3. Edit a Wiki home page

- Go to the course front page.
- Click on the Wiki activity on the course front page.
You will see the wiki home page.
- Click on the Edit tab.

It takes you to the editing page.

- Type page content into the box.
- Click on the Save button.

4. Create a sub wiki page

If you set the wiki mode to Collaborative wiki, students may use a sub wiki page for their wiki page.

- Go to the course front page.
- Click on the Wiki activity on the course front page.
You will see the Wiki home page.
- Click on the Edit tab.
- Type a word using two square brackets `[[ ]]`. For example, student name `[[Student A]]`.

5. Click on the Save button.
You will see a link to the sub wiki page.

One point - Creating a wiki page:

- Additional page - Type a word using two square brackets. e.g. [[Student 1]]. This will create a link that links to the new page in the wiki.
- Top level of heading - Select a word and choose "Heading (large)" from the formatting list.
- Second level of heading - Select a word and choose "Heading (medium)" from the formatting list.
- Third level of heading - Select a word and choose "Heading (small)" from the formatting list. You will then get a Table of Contents, followed by the actual content with different font sizes and NorQuest colours.

TABLE OF CONTENTS
1. North American Flags	[edit]
1.1. North American Country Flags
1.1.1. North American State/Provincial Flags
2. South American Flags	[edit]
2.1. South American Countries
2.1.1. South American State/Provincial Flags

5. Edit a sub wiki page

1. Go to the course front page.
2. Click on the Wiki activity on the course front page.
You will see the Wiki home page.
3. Click on the word that links to the sub wiki page. (It might be a student name.). It takes you to the editing page if this page has not been edited before. If there is content on this page, click on the Edit tab to edit.

* If the Format setting page appears, choose the wiki editor you prefer (HTML recommended). You cannot change the title of this sub page.

4. Click on the Create page button.
5. Type some content into the box.
6. Click on the Save button.

If you go back to the wiki home page, the font of the word that links to the sub wiki page will change. Italicized links lead to wiki pages that have no content yet.

Prime Ministers of Canada 1867-1935

Choices:

Sir John A. MacDonald

Alexander Mackenzie King

Sir John J.C. Abbott

Rt. Hon. Sir John S.D. Thompson

He was the first Prime Minister of Canada.

You will see the page list.

2. Click on the page name.

7. To leave your comment

You can leave your comment on each wiki page.

1. Go to the Wiki page that you want to leave a comment.
2. Click on the Comments tab.
3. Click Add comment.
4. Type a Comment.
5. Click on the Save changes button.
You will see your comment.

Edit icon  : Edit the comment.

Delete icon  : Delete the comment.

9. History and comparing the wiki pages:

You can compare the wiki page with an old version of the wiki page.

1. Go to the Wiki page that you want to see the history.

- Click on the History tab.

You will see the course history list.

- Choose two wiki pages by clicking the radio button in the Diff column.

- Click on the Compare selected button.

You will see the compare page. Differences will be highlighted in green.

* You can see a different version by clicking the word "Previous", "Next", or the version number at the bottom of the wiki page.
