

Sharing a video with your instructor to demonstrate skills

You will need to create videos to demonstrate skill development. This tip sheet explains how you may create a personal Google Drive Cloud site to save these videos and share them with your computer. Please note: you may use another cloud-sharing site as well including a personal private YouTube account.

The first step will be to create your video using your device and saving it to your computer. If you are using your camera on your phone, you may choose to email your video to yourself and save it.

Creating a Google account

Google Drive is a free cloud storage. In order to use Google Drive, you will need a Google account. As a NorQuest student, you have a Gmail address; your NorQuest email. You should be able to sign into Google Drive using your Gmail (NorQuest email) information.

Go to your NorQuest Email

Select Google Drive Icon: (Note: If this is the first time using Google Drive you may be prompted create a profile.)

To sign-in to a Google account (outside your email):

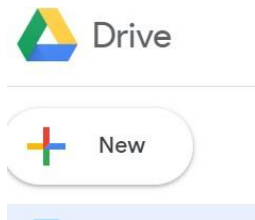

Go to www.google.com. Locate and select the Sign in button in the top-right corner of the page. Use your NorQuest email and

This should be your Personal Google Drive.

Adding your file(s) to Google Drive and sharing it with your instructor

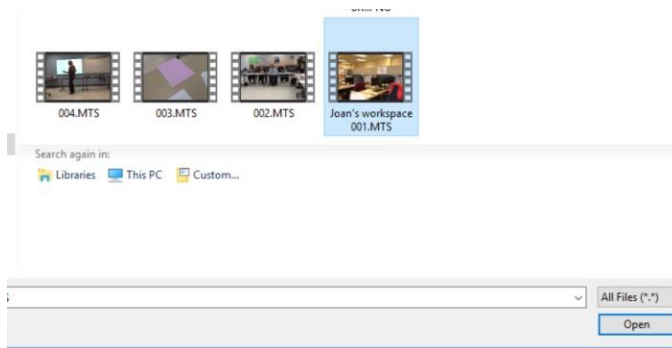

1. Select New (top left)

2. Select File upload.

3. Select the file you want to upload to Google Drive and Open (bottom right).

4. You will receive a notification in Google Drive. Select the check mark.

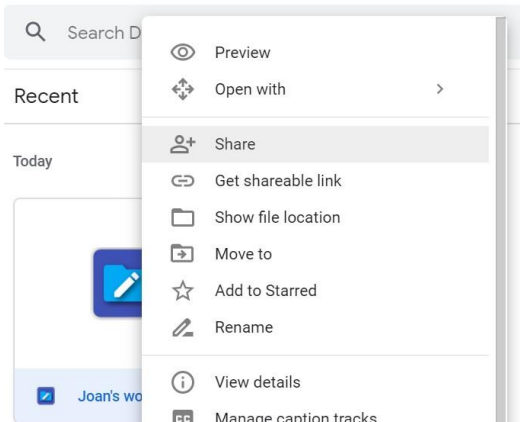

5. The video upload will start. How long it takes to upload your video to Google Drive depends upon the file size.

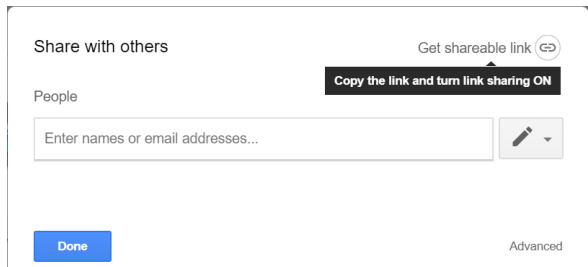

6. You will find your video in Recent.

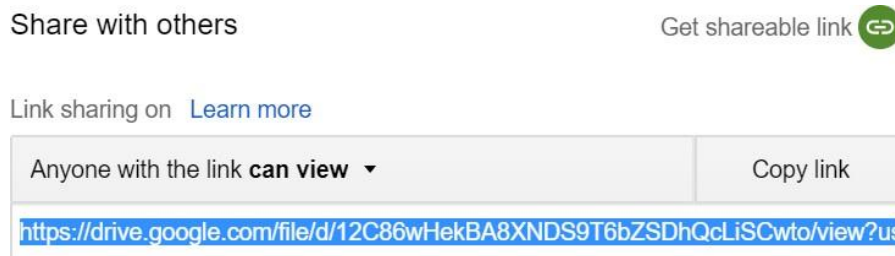

7. Right click and select Share.

8. Use the shareable link: top right of pop up menu.

9. Copy the link: (top right)

10. Your instructor has created an assignment for you in Moodle. You will be able to put this link in the text box. This video will remain private.

NOTE:

If you are using your @mynorquest.ca account, these share settings must be selected:
